++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Sunshine and scattered showers again Thursday. Breezy for many.

This Evening and Tonight:
Showers, perhaps quite heavy, continuing across northern and some western areas, the odd shower into southwest and southern coastal areas later. Patchy low cloud and fog in southeastern England, with a touch of frost here and in eastern Scotland.

Thursday:
Sunny intervals and showers. Showers heavier and blustery towards the northwest, with possible hail and thunder. Scattered showers in the south, but many eastern areas fine and probably feeling pleasant.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Rain and gusty winds Friday followed by sunshine and showers, these heavy and wintry especially in the north. Milder and windier over the weekend with further rain in the north.
